

PEOPLE - MARIE CURIE ACTIONS

Researchers' Night (NIGHT)

On Friday 27th September 2013, the Researchers' NIGHT will take place, as the next Europe-wide public and media event bringing researchers closer to the public at large and promoting research careers.

Proposal preparation and scope of the action:

- Participants can be any legal entity in the EU Member States and Associated Countries, which seek to organise this event on the national level
- Activities organised have to focus on the public at large and be organised with researchers, being actively involved and directly in contact with the public

Expected Impact:

- Bringing researchers closer to the general public
- Having a media event for the promotion of research careers
- Making the public better understand the role of researchers and the key benefits they bring to society
- Stimulating young people to embark on research careers
