About Vienna

Vienna, the capital of Austria with its 1,7 Mio. inhabitants is located in the heart of Europe. With the Bureau of the United Nations in Vienna the city is one of the four official residences of the United Nations. The city with its historical and cultural highlights as well as the Viennese hospitality attracts millions of tourists every year.

A couple of centuries ago Vienna was the residence of the Habsburg dynasty and since that time Vienna has a great diversity of magnificent historical buildings, churches and parks. Schönbrunn, the summer residence of the former monarchs is now one of the highlights of Vienna with a beautiful palace, great gardens and wonderful surroundings. More than 5 million people visit Schönbrunn every year. 1996 Schönbrunn Palace became UNESCO World Cultural Heritage as one of the most important cultural monuments in Austria.

The Viennese St. Stephen's Cathedrale (in German Stephansdom) is the most famous gothic building of Austria and the seat of the Archbishop of Vienna.

With the Giant Ferris Wheel, one of the city's landmarks, with its famous technical structure people have a unique view across the Prater and Vienna.

Vienna is also called the capital city of music because of its numerously celebrated classic musicians like Schubert, Mozart or Mahler. Also culture and art like fine arts, theatres or the Vienna Opera have a very long tradition.

The Wiener Schnitzel and the Sachertorte are typical Viennese specialities. Viennese cafes and restaurants are famous for their cosiness and excellent kitchen.

The Donauinsel and the Alte Donau invite to long walks, bicycle tours and pleasant evenings in typical Viennese taverns.

Vienna is one of the most romantic and beautiful places in the Europe and invites you to discover its history and culture.
