

Infoday

ICT Call 5 and the potential of an enlarged Europe

1st of July 2009

Tech Gate (Tech Lounge, 19th floor)

Donau City Straße 1, 1220 Vienna

Moderation: Thomas Zergoi | FFG European and International Programmes

12:30 Registration

13:15 Welcome and Introduction

Michael Wiesmüller | Federal Ministry for Transport, Innovation and Technology

13:45 Call 5 overview and new topics in the Work Programme 2009/2010

Michael Arentoft | European Commission DG INFSO

14:45 New Member States – their ICT research potential and the added value for YOU!

National ICT representatives (NCPs) from the EU 12 countries presenting their national research expertise and potential projects for Call 5

Maria Buciova | Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava (SK)

Eva Hillerová | Technology Centre AS CR (CZ)

Piotr Kepski | Ministry of Science and Higher Education (PL)

Mihael Mohorcic | Jozef Stefan Institute (SL)

15:45-16:15 Coffee break

16:15 Parallel breakout sessions: a closer look on the Challenges ahead

Challenge 1: Future Internet

The objectives of the future internet

Jürgen Rattenberger | FFG European and International Programmes

The future of the Internet – where does Europe stand?

David Kennedy | Eurescom

Down to Earth - Future Internet in Eureka Clusters?

Irina Slosar | FFG European and International Programmes

Challenge 3, 4 & FET:

The challenges ahead (Challenge 3, 4, FET)

Manfred Halver | FFG European and International Programmes

Photonics in Austria

Emil J.W. List | NanoTecCenter Weiz Forschungsgesellschaft mbH

17:30 EU Networking-Buffer and “Speakers Corner”

Meet the National ICT representatives from Slovakia, Poland, Slovenia and the Czech Republic for bilateral talks and listen to project ideas at the “Speakers Corner”

All activities of FFG in the European and International Programmes are funded by the Republic of Austria and The Austrian Federal Economic Chamber.